

The screenshot shows an email interface. At the top, the sender is welsupport@waterford.org via amazonses.com. A red arrow points to this address with the text Open this Email. The email is dated 4:42 PM (0 minutes ago). Below the header, there is a language selection bar with a red arrow pointing to it that says Click Here for Spanish. The languages listed are Español 粵式中文 한국어 簡體中文 繁體中文. The Waterford logo is present, followed by the text A Nonprofit Research Center. Below this, a large red arrow points to the text Welcome to Waterford at Home!. Underneath, a red arrow points to a link that says Click here to activate your Waterford Home Access. (Remember to use a Google Chrome™ browser.). The email body continues with: Your child, Bo Jackson, is using this same Waterford software at [redacted] School. We're excited to give you the opportunity to experience Waterford at home. A section titled Important follows, stating: Waterford Early Learning adapts to your child's individual needs. Allowing anyone other than your child to access it through the link above can disrupt your child's progress. At the bottom, the text Need help? is partially visible.
